If your children have read this book, consider talking about the story using these discussion questions:

1. How does Christy imply that her friends are going to have breakfast on the beach instead of just her and Todd? Is that a lie? Why does she do this? What do her parents tell her about trust and responsibility?
2. Why does Christy ask God to stop her from messing up? What does Christy like about getting second chances? What doesn't she like about getting second chances? Can you think of a time when you needed to ask God for a second chance? Why does God allow His children to make mistakes?
3. Aunt Marti asks what the point of being “saved” is if people continue to make mistakes after they become Christians. What analogy does Todd make? How does this illustrate how people live after they are “born again”?
